DJ,
I sent these two emails to Andrew a few days ago, but I suppose he is covered up, so I am sending them to you. Can you make sure I am understanding these things right, please? Especially, can I register Mrs. [REDACTED]?
Thanks,
SusieD

Andrew,
Just making sure I have this right. I have attached a copy of a lady's VR form that I was waiting on a COR for. Her felony is listed on this and it happened in the summer of 1969. Do I understand correctly that I can process this registration 1) without having to have anything else (COR, proof of date of judgement, etc.), and 2) not sending it to DJ?
So, in essence, if what they put on the form is prior to Jan 73 or May 81 (depending on what and when and if it falls in the list of what is permitted and what was current at that time to not lose their right to vote by) we are taking these people at their word that the felonies were what and when they say and they don't have any others? Or am I understanding it wrong?
Thanks,

Ok, now I have more questions...1)What other way can a person have their rights of citizenship restored other than by court order? and 2) I have received court orders restoring rights of citizenship previously that would restore them with the exception of owning firearms or running for public office, etc., but sometimes stating specifically that the right of suffrage is restored. Mark's memo says "full rights of citizenship." Those would count wouldn't they, or not?

Thanks,
SusieD
